THE SILENT SISTERS OF CAMP WALTON

It has been said that a woman cannot keep a secret but for several months seven women have proven that statement false, at least, they have proven their ability to keep silent.

After due consideration and with some trepidation we have decided to give the public the benefit of a part of our secret, merely for the good of that public. Several months ago we organized a society and gave it the name of "The S. S.'s of C. W." (The members who do not live at Camp Walton patronize that post office).

Where we meet or when we meet we do not intend to let it be known; nor is it our intention to acknowledge that we belong to the "Silent Sisters."

We have talked the matter over and have discussed it from every standpoint and have decided that an untruth, call it a lie, if you will, is not wicked if it harms no one, so at our last meeting we decided to deny point blank that we belong to or have any knowledge of said society. We will always remain silent on that part of the subject.

We meet together, not to gossip, for that is against our principles, and as we found that when we began talking about our neighbors we spoke of their frailties more often than of their virtues, we decided to never mention even the name of friend or neighbor during our meeting and that we would select some subject and each give our opinion on that subject, not for one member to write a paper and read to the others, but just talk it over together just as we used to gossip over our neighbor's dress, children, house-keeping, etc., and we found it interesting and instructive.

We have our president, secretary and treasurer, and we have a little money in the treasury, for whenever a member interrupts another while speaking, she is fined 5 cents, and we have all had to pay several times, but we have almost learned our lesson, and can sit quietly and listen until the speaker has finished her discourse.

We have for our motto, "Silence is golden when you have nothing worth saying."

We answer to roll call by giving a short quotation, something pertinent to the subject under discussion, and then we all repeat in chorus:

S. S. S. SKIN DISEASES

Lying just beneath the outer covering or tissue-skin, is a sensitive membranous flesh in which are imbedded thousands of small blood vessels. It is through these tiny veins and arteries that nutriment is supplied from the blood to the different pores, glands and lymphatics. Thus the skin is kept healthy, and free from all eruption or disease, by pure blood. But when impurities and humors infect the circulation its nourishing properties are diminished and instead of supplying the skin with healthful properties it constantly irritates and diseases the delicate fibres, pores and glands with sharp uratic matter. Then the skin tissues inflame, swell and ulcerate and some form of skin disease appears on the surface. Applying soothing lotions, salves, etc., to the outer eruptions does not purify the blood and therefore the skin trouble can not be cured in this manner. S. S. S. cures all skin diseases by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. It cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and inflamed by sour impurities is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Follicular Oils, pimples, rashes, etc. Book on Skin Diseases free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

"We wish you health, we wish you wealth."

We wish you gold in store, we wish you haven when you die. What could we wish you more?"

Which puts us all in harmony with one another.

Then we take up the subject chosen for discussion.

These discussions have been so enjoyable that we concluded that it was selfish to keep it all to ourselves, so at the last meeting we decided that as we have found a good thing we would pass it on.

We have discussed the meat boycott and each member has joined the boycott to the extent, at least, that they refuse to eat meat, though of course they have to cook it for their families.

They have discussed Taft and Teddy, the Panama canal, the attitude of the Japanese concerning the Manchurian railway, we have debated over the merits of republicanism, democracy, socialism, in fact, we have torn apart and brought to light every phase of politics and have shown why they have been and always will be failures until women have equal rights with man, but we are not suffragettes; please, oh, please, do not think that.

We have investigated every claim that both Peary and Cook have made and have positively decided that neither Peary nor Cook ever reached the north pole, and that if they had really reached it, we can not see any good accomplished thereby.

We are beginning to get rather short on subjects to discuss and were wondering what we would take up next when one of our members said:

"I think there is entirely too much said and written regarding the duty of mothers, of how they should raise their children and the different methods a wife should take to keep their husband's love, and entirely too little said of the father's duty, and I never see any rules given to a man telling him how to keep the love of his wife, and dear knows, he needs some rules. Now I think this thing should be changed and more attention given to the man both old and young."

We all heartily agreed and the subject was divided into three heads:

First, How to retain the love of your wife; second, the duty of the father to his children; third, how to be happy though married.

It was then moved and carried that the record of these discussions be sent to The Pensacola Journal, with the request that they be published in full, for the "Silent Sisters" feel that if the husbands really wish to retain the love of their wife that it is high time they were learning and adopting methods.

FELL TO DEATH IN A HATCH WAY

STEAMSHIP FERNLEY, EN ROUTE TO PENSACOLA FROM SANTOS, SCENE OF VERY REGRETTABLE ACCIDENT.

A young man whose name was not given, but who had been a member of the crew of the British steamship Fernley, from Santos to Pensacola, met death in a horrible manner while the vessel was on the voyage here, a report of the accident being made upon the arrival of the steamship here Friday.

It was made a matter of record on the steamer's log, which also contained the record that the body was consigned to the deep.

The death of the young seaman was deeply regretted, as he was very popular and in direct line of promotion.

Not Sorry For Blunder.
"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful lifesaver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. ### TWO FISHING BOATS HAD BAD TIME IN GULF

ALTHEA FRANKLIN AND ISABELLA BOTH LOST ANCHORS AND CABLE, AND FOOD WAS LOW ON ONE OF THE VESSELS.

Returning from the snapper banks yesterday morning, the fishing smacks Isabella and Althea Franklin, both of the Warren Fish Company fleet, reported that they had experienced very rough and disagreeable weather during the past fortnight, and each of them made report of lost anchors and many fathoms of chain. The Althea Franklin, while not on lessened rations, had an almost depleted galley when she came into port, with a catch of about 13,000 pounds of snappers. The men in conversation stated that the weather was cold and very unusual, and entirely out of the ordinary. High seas had been "kicked up" as one of them put it, and one of the fiercest of northerners prevailed during two days of their stay, impeding the progress of the vessel toward her home port, and thus keeping her in the gulf some time over the allotted and usual period of time in making the trip.

Report was made of the presence of

JOHN P. STOKES

Candidate for State Senator from Escambia County.

He is a native of Escambia County and has spent his life among the masses of the people. He is not connected with any special interest and is not backed by any special interest. He is free to represent the whole people honestly, fearlessly and efficiently.

As a member of the Lower House of the last Legislature, he was prominent in every move to advance the interest of the masses of the people, especially the farmers.

His experience derived from service in the last Legislature and his acquaintance with the men who will compose the next Legislature gives him an advantage not possessed by one who has never served in the Legislature.

Having served the people faithfully and efficiently in the Lower House, he should be promoted to the State Senate.

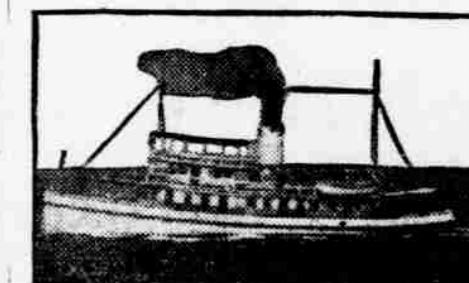

From the port named the vessel is now en route to this place for cargo.
